

Speakers

The Most Rev. Dr. John Chew

Archbishop and Primate of the Province of the Anglican Church in South East Asia, Bishop of Singapore

Archbishop Chew, who resides in Singapore, was elected in March 2010 to a second term as Primate of the Anglican Province of Southeast Asia. He holds a Doctorate in Old Testament Studies from Sheffield University (1982) and was principal of Trinity Theological College (Singapore) from 1991 until he was elected Bishop of Singapore in 2000. In April of this year, he succeeded Archbishop Peter Akinola (Nigeria) as chairman of the Global South Primates Steering Committee – a group that represents the vast majority of active, committed Anglicans worldwide.

Dr. Toni Dolfo-Smith

Executive Director of Living Waters Canada

Toni is Executive Director of Living Waters Canada, a position he has held since the ministry started in 1991. He is also the Associate Director of Living Waters International and oversees the ministry's work in Asia. In the past several years, he has travelled extensively to help set up and support healing ministries around the world, including Hong Kong, Latvia, Turkey, Indonesia, South Africa and the Philippines. Besides working with Living Waters, he is a freelance artist in Vancouver, B.C. He and his wife, Mardi, have four children.

Dr. James M. Houston

Founding Principal & Board of Governors' Professor, Spiritual Theology, Regent College, Vancouver, British Columbia, Canada

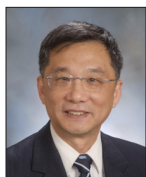

Dr. James Houston, emeritus Professor of Spiritual Theology. Born in 1922 of missionary parents in S.E. Spain, James Houston was educated at Edinburgh University (M.A., with first class honours in Geography), and appointed as Geographer to the Clyde Valley Regional Planning Authority, 1944-45. He then graduated with B.Sc. and D.Phil, in Oxford University, where he taught as a University Lecturer, 1947-1970, and as Fellow of Hertford College. He was appointed founding Principal of Regent College in 1970, and then Chancellor in 1978. He then became the first Professor of Spiritual Theology in an Evangelical college, a subject he pioneered. Retired since 2000, he still travels, writes books, teaches, and is mentor to many.

Mr. Daniel Komori

Living Waters Canada

A graduate of Regent College, Daniel is Director of Living Waters Calgary. Previously, he served for three years as Director for Living Waters Coastal Region. Daniel has also travelled to the Philippines, Latvia and Hong Kong to train Living Waters leaders, and has spoken at numerous seminars about the nature of sexual addiction and its impact on families, marriages and churches. Daniel and his wife, Tanya, have two children.

Rev. Warren Lai

Senior Pastor, Scarborough Chinese Baptist Church,
Ontario, Canada

Adjunct Professor of Pastoral & Chinese Ministry, & the Director of Hudson Taylor Centre for Chinese Ministries, Tyndale University College & Seminary, Toronto, Ontario, Canada

Rev. Lai has been a pastor-teacher. He has taught at the Evangel Theological College, OBC - OTS, and McMaster Divinity College. He considers this dual role as both an opportunity to summarize, reflect on, and refine what he has been practicing, and also an opportunity to put theories in the classroom through the crucibles of real-world practice.

Rev. Lai has a broad spectrum of experience in Pastoral ministry: church planting consultant (Mississauga CBC, Tuen Mun EFC, Markham CBC, and Pickering CBC), equipping specialist (Toronto Chinese Alliance Church), and missionary (with the Evangelical Free Church of North America). He has served on the board of many organizations, including the Council of the Evangelical Fellowship of Canada. Since returning to Canada in 1986, he has been the senior pastor of a multi-congregational church (Scarborough Chinese Baptist Church)—a ‘traditional’ church that can change and adopt quite a few ‘ahead of the curve’ ideas.

Rev. Canon Dr. James I. Packer

Theologian Emeritus, Anglican Network in Canada

Dr. Packer is among the best known and most respected Christian theologians of our time. Originally from Britain, he moved to Canada in 1979 to become Professor of systematic and historical theology at Regent College.

A prolific author, his seminal book, Knowing God, sums up the shared beliefs uniting Christians across denominations. More recently, Dr. Packer served as General Editor on the team of over 100 translators and Biblical scholars involved in the acclaimed English Standard Version translation of the Bible.

Dr. Packer’s extensive list of activities and commitments includes: Board of Governors’ Professor of Theology and Director of the Anglican Studies Program at Regent College, Assistant Minister at St John’s (Shaughnessy) in Vancouver, Executive Editor for Christianity Today, contributor to a variety of theological journals, and editor of the Ginger Group’s Anglican Agenda series.

Rev. Dr. David Pao

Associate Professor of New Testament at Trinity Evangelical Divinity School,
Deerfield, Illinois, USA

David W. Pao (PhD Harvard University) is Chair and Associate of Professor of New Testament at Trinity Evangelical Divinity School. His recent publications include Acts and the Isaianic New Exodus (2000), Thanksgiving: An Investigation of a Pauline Theme (2002), Early Christian Voices: In Texts, Traditions, and Symbols (coeditor, 2003), and Commentary on the Gospel of Luke, 2 vols. (2008, 2009). He is involved in a number of Bible translation projects. He is also the New Testament editor of the Tien Dao Bible Commentary series and the consulting editor of the Zondervan Exegetical Commentary series.

Rev. Ken Shigematsu

Senior Pastor, Tenth Church, Vancouver, British Columbia, Canada

Ken Shigematsu is the senior pastor of Tenth Avenue Church, a large multi-ethnic, church in heart of Vancouver, British Columbia. Drawing on both eastern and western leadership philosophies with a penchant for risk-taking, Ken is a unique figure as a senior pastor. He has participated in teaching missions in North America, Europe, and Asia. A global thinker, he serves as a trustee for World Vision. Prior to entering full-time ministry, Ken worked for the Sony Corporation in Tokyo. He is married to Sakiko and they are parents of a young son, Joe.

Rev. Dr. Brian C. Stiller

President of Tyndale University College & Seminary (1995 to 2009)

Founder and former editor-in-chief of Canada's national magazine, Faith Today, Former president of the Evangelical Fellowship of Canada

Brian Stiller was raised in a minister's home on the prairies. Educated at the University of Toronto (BA in History), Wycliffe College (Master of Religion), and Gordon-Conwell Theological Seminary (Doctor of Ministry), he has received honorary doctorates from Briercrest College and Trinity Western University.

During the 1960s, Stiller set out to work with youth, first in Montreal as director of Youth for Christ, then Toronto YFC, and finally as national president of Youth for Christ.

From 1983 to 1997 his leadership as president of the Evangelical Fellowship of Canada gave him national profile as a voice for people of biblical faith. By way of weekly television, publishing a national magazine, authoring a number of books and public speaking, increasingly his opinions and views of issues of moral concern were sought.

Brian served as President of Tyndale University College & Seminary from 1995 to 2009. Tyndale is the oldest standing institution of its kind in Canada, serving some 1200 students.

Stiller is founder and former editor-in-chief of Canada's national magazine, Faith Today. He hosts a weekly commentary, You've Got Mail, on the national television program, 100 Huntley Street. He is the author of ten books. The most recent are Preaching Parables to Postmoderns (2005), published by Fortress Press; Jesus and Caesar: Christians in the Public Square (2003), published by Castle Quay Books Canada; What Happens When I Die? (2001), published by HarperCollins; When Life Hurts: A Three-Fold Path to Healing (1999), and From the Tower of Babel to Parliament Hill (1997).

From 1983 to 1997 his leadership as president of the Evangelical Fellowship of Canada gave him national profile as a voice for people of biblical faith. By way of weekly television, publishing a national magazine, authoring a number of books and public speaking, increasingly his opinions and views of issues of moral concern were sought.

Worship Leader

Rev. James Ip

Pastor, Richmond Chinese Alliance Church
Chair, Vancouver Chinese Evangelical Ministerial Fellowship

Respondents & Panel Chairs

Ms. Karli Lin Baldwin

Previously ministered to second generation Chinese Canadians of Malaysian descent in a church-plant congregation. Now a full time Mom actively involved in bible studies and discipleship with other women.

Rev. Dr. Chung-Yan Joyce Chan

Associate Professor of Church History and the Director of the North American Chinese Ministries Program, Carey Theological College, Vancouver, British Columbia, Canada

Rev. Dr. Paul Chan

Senior Pastor, Lord's Grace Church, Vancouver, British Columbia, Canada
Chairman, Chinese Christian Mission (USA)

Dr. George Egerton

Associate Professor Emeritus, Department of History, University of British Columbia, Vancouver, British Columbia, Canada

Rt. Rev. Stephen Leung

Suffragan Bishop in multi-cultural ministry, Anglican Network In Canada
Rector, Anglican Network Church of the Good Shepherd,
Vancouver, British Columbia, Canada

Dr. David Ley

Professor and Head, Department of Geography, University of British Columbia, Vancouver, British Columbia, Canada

Dr. Donald M. Lewis

Professor of Church History, Regent College, Vancouver, British Columbia, Canada

Rev. Dr. Ted Ng

Lead Pastor, Faith Community Christian Church, Vancouver, BC